BEFORE STARTING YOUR ON-FARM ACTIVITY, YOU ARE REQUIRED TO READ THE POSTED WARNING TO VISITORS AND VISITOR RESPONSIBILITIES SIGNS LOCATED AT [red dot] TO LEARN ABOUT:

- The risks inherent to participating in on-farm activities; and
- Your responsibilities when participating in the activities on this working farm.

THE WARNING TO VISITORS SIGN IS POSTED AT the Information Bulletin Board Near the Cafe. This sign identifies the inherent risk(s) of the on-farm activities in which you will be participating - activities that may expose you to the risk of personal injury, death or damage to your property.

THE VISITOR RESPONSIBILITIES SIGN IS POSTED AT the Information Bulletin Board Near the Cafe. This sign describes your responsibilities as a visitor on a working farm, which include: obeying directional and "off limits" signs, following instructions and obeying warnings from farm representatives; complying with posted rules of conduct; and exercising reasonable care concerning disclosed risks.

Visitors may be filmed, photographed, or recorded by Hurds Family Farm or authorized guest for educational and promotional uses, including for posting on the HFF website and social media platforms and print advertisements without compensation to the visitor. PICK YOUR OWN APPLES

LATE AUGUST

Ginger Gold GD Sweet, mildly tart. Exceptional for eating, salads, and kids.

Tydemán T Extra sweet flavor, hint of spice. Similar to McIntosh, good for pies.

Paula Red P Tart, juicy. Excellent for eating and sauce.

McIntosh M Sweet, juicy, tart tang. A classic eating apple and excellent for sauce.

Jonamac JM Sweet, tart. Good for fresh eating.

How to Pick an Apple

Look for the apples with lots of color.

Use the palm of your hand to lift and turn the apples bottom to the sky.

If the apple comes off in your hand it is ready. If not it needs more time on the tree.

EARLY SEPTEMBER

Gala G Sweet, juicy. Great snack for kids.

Honeycrisp H Sweet, crisp. Superb for eating, salads, and pies.

Cortland C Sweet, hint of tartness. Good for salads, stays white longer.

LATE SEPTEMBER

Jonagold JG Honey sweet, hint of tartness, very juicy. Excellent for eating, salads, sauce, & baking.

Empire E Tasty, sweet, tart. Superb for eating and baking. Susan's favorite!

Macoun MN Extra sweet, mild, tart taste. Great for pies and baked apples.

SnapDragon SD Crisp, spicy, sweet, juicy. Newest blend of Honeycrisp. Favorite of our 6th generation farmers. Best for eating.

EARLY OCTOBER

Golden Delicious GD Mildly sweet, juicy. Best for eating, salads and sauce.

Crimson Crisp CC Tart, crisp, slightly spicy. Stores well. Good for eating salads, and sandwiches.

Red Delicious RD Sweet, juicy, crisp. Excellent for eating, salads, and taking on the go.

Rome R Mildly tart. Perfect for sauce and baking.

RubyFrost RF Crisp, sweet, tart. Like Empire and Granny Smith. Great for salads, pies or paired with red wine.

Idared IR Sweet, tart, crisp. Great for pies.

LATE OCTOBER

Fuji F Sweet, juicy, extremely crisp. Excellent for fresh eating and cheese plates.

Lady Apples LD Tender, sweet, hint of tart. Best for caramelizing and roasting. Kids love this unique tiny apple.

Crispin (Mutsu) CN Sweet, very juicy, super crisp. A fine choice for eating and baking.

Cameo CA Tart, sweet, crispy. Excellent for salads, pies, sauces and baking Granny Smith GS Firm, bright, strong tartness. A favorite for fresh eating and baking.

Pink Lady PL Very firm, tart, effervescent finish. Similar to Honeycrisp. Best for snacking, baking, and juicing.
